Sub: Nomination of Candidates for the Non-Certification Referee Course for Fresh National Technical Officials

The Wrestling Federation of India (WFI) is pleased to announce the organization of a Non-Certification Referee Course for Fresh National Technical Officials under the supervision of United World Wrestling (UWW). The UWW will depute a qualified Instructor to conduct the course and impart the requisite technical knowledge and training to the participants. The course is scheduled to be held from to 3rd to 5th November 2026 at Najafgarh Stadium, New Delhi. The primary objective of this educational programme is to strengthen the technical officiating framework of wrestling in India by increasing the number of qualified and knowledgeable Technical Officials across the country.

In this regard, all affiliated State Units/Boards are requested to nominate ONE eligible candidate each from their respective State/Board for participation in the said course.

All affiliated State Units/Boards are requested to forward the nomination alongwith the duly completed and signed Registration Form of the nominated candidate and Registration Fee of Rs.10,000/- to the Wrestling Federation of India (IND@uww.org) on or before 24th October 2026.

All concerned are requested to adhere to the above deadline to facilitate the timely completion of registration formalities and necessary arrangements for the course. The WFI will provide Boarding / Lodging facilities to all participants from 3rd to 5th November 2026.
