Sub: Attendance, Leave and Medical Fitness at National Coaching Camps

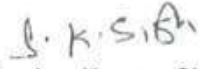

It has been observed with serious concern that the attendance of wrestlers at the National Coaching Camp is very poor. Wrestlers often avail leave for 2-3 days but report back to the camp only after 20-25 days. It has also been observed that some wrestlers remain at the camp despite being medically unfit and are unable to participate in training, resulting in ineffective utilization of the camp facilities and resources.

In order to ensure discipline, regular training and effective utilization of the National Coaching Camp, the Wrestling Federation of India (WFI) has decided the following:

1. A wrestler may avail leave for a maximum of 2-3 days once in a month, with prior permission from the competent authority. The wrestler must report back to the camp immediately after expiry of the sanctioned leave. In case a wrestler does not report back to the camp after availing sanctioned leave, WFI shall inform the concerned department/organisation for appropriate action, including cancellation of sports leave, wherever applicable.
2. Wrestlers who are not employed in any department and fail to report back to the camp after availing leave shall be immediately removed from the camp. A suitable replacement may be made as per the requirement. Such wrestlers shall also not be permitted to participate in the next selection trials.
3. Wrestlers who are medically unfit for a prolonged period and are unable to participate effectively in training may be granted leave from the camp. In such cases, WFI may make the necessary replacement to ensure effective utilization of the available camp slots.
4. Wrestlers shall not be permitted to leave the camp on Saturdays or Sundays. Leave exceeding 3 days shall be permitted only in exceptional circumstances and with prior approval of the competent authority.

All wrestlers, coaches and support staff are directed to strictly adhere to the above instructions. Any deviation from these guidelines shall be viewed seriously and may result in appropriate action as decided by WFI.

This circular shall come into force with immediate effect.
